Exciting news!

We are delighted to announce that Gail Richmond will be joining us as our new Assistant Curate in summer 2027.

Gail will be serving as a self-supporting minister, combining her curacy with us with her ongoing work as a history teacher at a local secondary school.

Rev Phil said: "Having already had the pleasure of meeting Gail a few times, it’s clear that she will be a brilliant fit for our churches. She will bring lots of gifts and talents with her as she ministers amongst us, and I know that the Benefice will welcome her with open arms, offering her the encouragement and support she needs as she begins this new chapter, grows into her ministry and discovers all that God has in store for her."

Gail said: "I'm very grateful for this opportunity to continue my walk with God in the Draycote and Leam Valley Benefice, and to step into a new ministry as Assistant Curate. I'm excited to be a part of the varied life of the benefice and am really looking forward to meeting people and becoming part of the community. Your prayers for myself and those closest to me as I head towards ordination in June would be deeply appreciated."

Please do keep Gail and her family in your prayers over the coming months as she prepares for her ordination next summer.

We can't wait to welcome her to the benefice!
